

Emotional Stability and self-Concept Among Children's

Kamlesh P. Pithva.

Ph.D scholer

Department of psychology

Saurashtra University, Rajkot(Gujrat)

Abstract

The main purpose of this research was to find out the mean difference between children's boys and girls in emotional stability and self concept. The total 80 children's (40 boys, 40 girls) were taken as a sample. Researcher was taken Dr.A.Sen Gupta & Dr.A.K.Singh scale measured. The research tool for Emotional Stability test For Children (ESTC). Here Gujarati adaption was used by Y.A. Jogsan. Self concept was measured by Dr. S.P. Ahluwalia was used. Here Gujarati adaption was used by Y.A. Jogson. 't' test was applied to check the significant difference of emotional stability and self-concepts in children's boys and girls. Result revealed that significant difference in emotional stability and self concept with respect both children's boys and girls

Key words: Emotional Stability and self-Concept